

★ In obedience to you, Father,
I release the creative word, Jesus Christ, who hath now become my flesh in fire, out into this body to create in him whatever natures you would have him and whatever ministry you would have him and whatever gifts you would have him.
Hath been done.

★ Being confident, Father, that you are able to perform just exactly what is needed in this life, I pull this son/daughter of yours under the tent of your fullness that hath clothed upon me and impart out to him/her your living creative word, Jesus Christ, that hath now become my flesh in fire. Hath been done.

Father, by faith in your ability, you having clothed upon me, and hath made me Jesus Christ, the living creative word of fire in my flesh; by faith in your ability to perform and make this life every wit whole spiritually and naturally, I now pull her/him under the tent of your fullness that has clothed upon me and impart out to her/him the fullness of your creative word of fire out of my body by the Holy Ghost. (utter)
Hath been done.

By faith in your ability, Lord, to perform just exactly what you said, I pull this child of yours right under the tent of your fullness that hath clothed upon me and I impart out to him/her the fire of the Holy Ghost, your creative word that hath now become my flesh in fire. to create in him/her your perfect will for him/her tonight. It hath been done. (utter)
